

FRIDAY EVENING, DEC. 22, 1882.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

NOTICE.

Read the new holiday advertisements printed to-day, and information will be obtained that will enable our readers to solve the perplexing question where to get the most desirable and the cheapest holiday goods in the city.

A STOCKING hung from the mantel-piece;
'Twas decidedly poor and holey;
But bad as it was, it belonged to a man—
An editor meek and lowly.
It hung all night till the light of morn
Came dancing through the sashes;
But alas, for the hose, and alas, for the man—
'Twas filled to the top with ashes!
Ashes of many a hope deferred
And dust of procrastination,
Ashes of benefits conferred
And ashes of desolation.
Woe to the man with the shattered sock—
Oh, darn it all—'tis shocking!
And woe to the fellow who filled it up—
Alas, for the editor's stocking.

Eggs are very scarce.

HEAVY fog this morning.

J. H. HALL &amp; Co., are shipping plows to-day.

COL. JAKE CORBETT, private secretary to Governor Blackburn, is in the city to-day.

A. J. EGNEW &amp; Co., received 10,000 gallons of fine Pennsylvania stoneware to-day.

CAPT. WASH. HONSHALL's new boat, the Kate Honshell, will be finished by next spring.

J. C. OWENS &amp; Co., of the Maysville elevators, have purchased the W. P. Thompson's old whistle.

WILLIAM CONNELLY was elected Second Lieutenant of the Emmet Rifles at the meeting Thursday evening, without opposition.

The result in numerous criminal cases, tried of late, in which insanity has been set up in defense, seems to indicate that that dodge is played out.

The colored crayon drawing "Adirondack Falls" will be raffled this evening at the European Hotel. Ticket holders should be on hand promptly at 7 o'clock.

A KIND-HEARTED farmer has presented the editor of the Kentucky Democrat with a pumpkin as a Christmas gift. One editor in Kentucky, at least, will enjoy the holidays.

GEORGE ORT's raffle for a fine parlor set of furniture will take place at his store on Sutton street to-morrow evening. All persons who have taken chances are asked to be present.

THE amount of silver now in the treasury vaults weighs about 4,800,000 pounds, or twenty-four hundred tons. This would make twelve hundred two-horse wagon loads, or a procession about six miles in length.

J. W. SPARKS &amp; Bro. announce a slaughter in prices of dry goods, and there is such a rush at their store that the help are taxed to wait on the customers. You should call early to get the best bargains. See prices elsewhere.

THE supper and dance arranged by the Washington fire company for its members, takes place at the hall to-night. The occasion is certain to be a very pleasant one as the company never fails to do things of that kind properly.

THE new novel, The Duchesse Undine, by Hanson Penn Diltz, of Augusta, has just been issued from the press of T. B. Peterson &amp; Brother, of Philadelphia. It said of it that "the characters are all powerfully drawn, and the plot is wonderfully clever, the various mysteries of the novel being impenetrable until in due course explained. That it will have an enormous sale cannot be doubted."

BY TELEGRAPH.

Langtry and Gebhardt Mobbed in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21—Freddy Gebhardt, who lifted himself into fame by Mrs. Langtry's apron strings during that lady's late engagement in Boston, arrived in this city last night, and registered at Hotel Bellevue, where the lady is stopping. This afternoon he and Mrs. Langtry went out for a promenade on Chestnut street. Before walking a square they were surrounded by a mob numbering fully 1,000 persons. Gebhardt had to beat the crowd off with his cane, and he and his fair companion were finally compelled to take refuge in a street car, and return to their hotel, in order to escape the impudent crowd which had followed them. Mrs. Langtry's reception of Gebhardt here has cost many social attentions which had been preparing for her.

Gen. Sherman for President.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21—A good many people believe that Gen. Sherman has actually got the presidential bee in his bonnet. By those entertaining this belief, the fact that the general has determined to retire before the time required by law, is interpreted as a step in this direction. So much credence is given to the theory that the matter is being talked of by a good many active politicians.

It is urged in the general's behalf that Gen. Grant being out of the field, Sherman is the man to catch the soldier vote, and having of late given much attention to military reunions and kept alive remembrances of the war, he is exceptionally strong in this regard.

A Shaky Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, December 21.—Notwithstanding the reported denial of the Sultan to a political personage that he was in daily fear of assassination, recent movements in the interior of his palace of Yildiz show that he is taking most extraordinary precautions for his personal safety. More than a hundred Circassian ladies of the imperial harem, suspected of being accomplices of their kinsmen of the body guard which was recently disbanded, have been exiled to different parts of the empire. The Circassian element is just now an object of considerable distrust at Yildiz. The life led by the Sultan is said to be most terrible.

Yildiz itself is said to resemble a fortress rather than a palace. His Majesty carries a loaded revolver constantly with him, and he scarcely leaves the shelter of his harem and partakes of little nourishment for fear of poison being mixed with his food. With the Sultan in this state, it is not to be wondered at that the people are discouraged and discontent, and reform in any shape is despaired of.

What is There for Me?

The year is nearly over, it's toils nearly ended. We want rest and recreation. We want a brief time to forget the thorns and briars, the wrongs that have smarted and tried, the world's increasing fight. Yes, we want something more—the Christmas holidays are here and we want nice presents. Every person will say, what is there for me? Let us tell you. J. W. Sparks & Bro. are alive to the wants of the people and have anticipated them in advance and have brought on many nice things. elegant linen and silk handkerchiefs, fine hosiery gloves, laces, scarfs, collars, hats, caps, cloaks for the holiday trade, and they are at prices all can buy. In addition they have a large stock. It is no sensational statement that the bottom has been knocked out of prices and they are offering astonishing bargains at J. W. Sparks & Bro.'s on Market street. d19d6t

THERE will be a called meeting of Mason Lodge, No. 342, on Wednesday, Dec. 27, 1882, at 7 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing twelve months. A full attendance is desired.

A Model Poet Says:

Long had I looked and searched and sought,
Both Stoves and Ranges, too, I bought;
And every kind on earth I tried,
And yet with none felt satisfied,
I hoped at last one dazzling ray,
The "Omaha" I saw one day;
I found at length the thing I sought—
I went—examined it—and bought.
CHORUS.
The "Omaha!" The "Omaha!"
To buy it is house-keeping law,
Search through the north, south, east and west,
The "Omaha" you'll find THE BEST.

A. J. EGNEW &amp; CO.

REV. DR. ROBERT McMERDY, an old and prominent Mason of Dayton, Ohio, denies the Thurlow Weed story regarding the drowning of Morgan, of anti-Masonic notoriety, and states that Morgan was induced to emigrate from this county, dying at length a natural death in Smyrna, Turkey.

The protectionists see to it that their interests are not prejudiced by the tariff tinkering now in progress by the ways and means committee. The duty on plain, window-glass remains as heretofore, eighty-five per cent, but that on ornamental glass and earthenware is reduced from sixty to fifty-five per cent.

THE holiday vacation of the school children begins to-morrow.

THE question as to whether or not certain taxes collected during the war shall be refunded to the states is now under consideration by the head of the treasury department. In August 1881 congress levied a direct tax on the states amounting to $20,000,000. The act is construed to provide that after the war one half of the tax shall be returned to the states. The secretary is in doubt as to whether he can return the money without a special act of congress, and that is the question he is now deliberating upon.
